Incident

Housemaster becomes aware of incident
Housemaster collects statement(s) from student(s) & staff

Possible Stand-Down/Removal

Director of Boarding reviews statements & decides the level of the incident

DoB determines incident is a House Disciplinary matter

Housemaster determines consequence & inform Whānau

Stand-Down/Removal

Director of Boarding:

Evaluate evidence to date.
Collect further evidence if necessary.
Evaluate all evidence.
Determine possible Stand-Down or Removal.
Inform whānau by phone of incident & process to follow.
Inform Deputy/Headmaster of incident.
Provide whānau with written documentation summarising incident.
Interview student(s) & staff (providing support person).
Compile Final Investigation Report & in consultation with Deputy/Headmaster, decide to either Stand-Down or refer the Investigation Report to Deputy/Headmaster to consider Removal.

Possible Removal

Deputy/Headmaster

Inform whānau by phone of investigation possible outcome & consequence(s)
Provide opportunity for whānau to consider/respond.
Decide final outcome.
Provide whānau/DoB/Housemaster/Dean with final Investigation Report & consequence(s) in writing.

Stand-Down

Inform whānau by phone of investigation outcome & consequence(s).
Provide whānau/Deputy/Headmaster/Housemaster/Dean with final Investigation Report in writing.

Application for Reinstatement

An application for reinstatement must be made by the parents within seven days of the boarder/ whānau being notified of the decision to remove.

The application must be made in writing and emailed or faxed to the Headmaster's secretary.

The application will be heard by the Headmaster and members of the Board of Trustees.

The Director of Boarding will be present and speak to the Investigation Report.

The Boarder may have a support person(s) present.

The panel hearing the application has three options:

- a. Reinstatement the Boarder – no conditions
- b. Reinstatement the Boarder – conditions
- c. Not reinstate the Boarder

The committee will retire to deliberate. The Boarder and his whānau will be informed in writing of the panel's decision, and the reasons for it, within 24 hours of the hearing concluding.

In this scheme some powers are reserved to the Director of Boarding, and to the Deputy/Headmaster. If either is not available, these powers are delegated to the person acting in the relevant position at the time.
